Till ready Swinging March Style.

We've had lots of things to do in the Ev - - - ery smiling mother's son will be great war where right meant might, there when there's work to do,

We've cheered many a soldier's mother who was Giv - - - ing a hand to dear old mother and - waiting by the quiet fire - side, Now the clang of war is o'er, We want to Dad and to sis - ter Sue, And you'll hear us sing this song, As - - we want - ed The Boy Scouts will play the man.

The musical score consists of six systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features a steady rhythmic accompaniment with triplets and various chordal textures. Dynamics include ff (fortissimo) and ff with accents. The lyrics are: "tell - you as march be - fore. We're still pre - pared to do our gai - ly ly march a - long. long. We're still pre - pared to do our du - ty in a hum - ble way or grand, Be it home or na - tion calls us we're still pre - pared to give a hand, For "There is a land where sum - mer skies, "And we love her flag so grand, When we're want - ed The Boy Scouts will play the man."
